Bullsheets 1 – January 2026

Queensland IV 2027

Game On!

We are so excited to announce the upcoming Queensland IV 2027.

It is wonderful to see that the IV movement made a return in 2025 in Sydney and has been continued in Canberra in 2026.

Queensland cannot wait to welcome you all to our balmy (almost 12° C!) winter months in 2027 for a truly new IV concept.

Video games! Some of the most amazing and creative composers are working in this space and our festival will bring together a selection of some fun, original and beautiful choral pieces composed for video games to present a new and innovative IV experience.

We so hope you can join us in Brisbane from 3-11 July 2027 to celebrate music, singing, our creative community and the really innovative music that is being produced in the video game space.

Come sing with us!

Our Conductor

QIV 2027 is privileged to announce that Dr. Trevor Jones will be joining us as Musical Director for this festival.

Trevor is no stranger to IVs or AICSA choirs, having conducted MonUCS from 1999 to 2005.

Trevor is also an award-winning conductor based in Melbourne who has worked across many different music genres including opera, musical theatre, cabaret and pop.

He has worked all across Australia and internationally and we are so excited that he has agreed to be part of this 2027 IV experience.
